

WABC-TV in New York to feature Yonkers on 6 p.m. news Friday night

from the USTA Communications Department

Columbus, OH --- WABC-TV (Channel 7) in New York will air a feature Friday night (May 4) on the 6 p.m. news that was shot on Thursday (May 3) at Yonkers Raceway by Sports Anchor Ryan Field for his "Field Trips" segment.

Field joined amateur driver Joe Lee, who is the New York Yankees' assistant locker room manager, in a double-seated jog cart. The WABC-TV reporter donned the colors of trainer Robbie Siegelman for his "how to" interview with Lee in which they discussed harness racing, horses, the track and equipment as they jogged around the Yonkers oval.

After airing on the evening news, the story will be posted on the WABC-TV website here.

Field is also scheduled to talk about Saturday's Kentucky Derby festivities at the Empire City Casino. For more information, click here.