

Thunder, Gimpanzee fool few in Friday night's Lew Barasch Trot

by Frank Drucker, Publicity Director, Empire City at Yonkers Raceway

Yonkers, NY --- Yonkers Raceway on Friday night (Sept. 14) wrapped up its New York Sire Stakes legs with the $156,200 Lew Barasch Trot for 2-year-old colts and geldings.

Friday's event once again honored the memory of 'Tootie,' whose unmatched PR savvy in the golden age of the game helped make the nascent Roosevelt International Trot a happening.

Jason Bartlett drove Thunder to a 1:58 victory.

The evening's first $77,400 grouping saw odds-on Thunder (Jason Bartlett, $3.10) do it handily in 1:58. From post position No. 2, he made the lead around Brady Bunch (Andy Miller) after an early break of Kredit Karma (Brian Sears). After that, no issues for the favorite through dawdling (:29.1, :59.2, 1:29) fractions.

Chip Chip Conway (Jim Taggart Jr.) tried it first-up from third, settling for second to the winner (as he did at Vernon), with the final margin three lengths in a time of 1:58. Brady Bunch and Quiksilvr Bluchip (Jordan Stratton) completed the gimmick finishers.

For Thunder, a son of Conway Hall-CR Oh Suzanna trained by John Butenschoen for co-owners Crawford Farms Racing, VIP Internet Stables and Jeremy Day, it was his fourth win in eight seasonal starts (all in last five tries). The exacta paid $12.20, the triple returned $17.20 and the superfecta paid $98.50.

"He's handy, he gets over any size tracks and he's getting better," Bartlett said. "We're ready for next week (sire stakes finals here)."

The evening's second $78,800 statebred sojourn was a mismatch on paper and in practice for divisional leader Gimpanzee (Sears, $2.10), making it six-for-six ($166,358 in earnings) during his frosh-fest.

All the wins have come in New York Sire Stakes competition, the latest after weigh stations of :29, :57.4, 1:28.1 and (identical to first event) 1:58. From post No. 6, he waited his turn to get by an eventually-breaking Captain Krupnik (Dan Dube) and Chapter Fashion (Bartlett).

The latter eventually did the dance of the damned coming to the half, which led to an extremely gapped-out gang. The lead was eight lengths at intermission. Our White Knight (Miller) did cut in that passing the three-quarters, but the outcome was even more death-and-taxes than death-and-taxes.

Gimpanzee won by 3-3/4 lengths, with Our White Knight safely second over Certify (Jeff Gregory). Fourth went to Captain Krupnik, as his break wasn't as costly as the other three misbehavers -- even though all four were 'distanced' in the chart.

Gimpanzee, a son of Chapter Seven-Steamy Windows is trained by Marcus Melander for Delray Beach co-owners Courant Inc. and S R F Stable. He has won his half-dozen starts by a combined 23-1/4 lengths. The exacta paid $23.20, the triple returned $222 and the superfecta paid $920.

"He's done nothing wrong and tonight was the same," Sears said.

The Raceway hosts the $1.8 million New York Night of Champions Saturday night (Sept. 22), with eight $225,000 divisional finals.

Friday night's $44,000 Filly and Mare Open Handicap Pace was won by Medusa (Sears, $6.60) in 1:52, the lady's 35th career victory in her 120th start.
