

By Mike Sardella

Kelly's Noah recorded his fifth win of the season at Saratoga Gaming and Raceway on Saturday night as leading driver Frank Coppola Jr piloted the 7-5 favorite to a first over victory in the $16,500 open pace. Assigned post seven for the feature, the James Harvey trainee found a seat early and after sitting third, rushed up first over on the race's frontrunner, Tuffofthetoughest (Ray Schnittker) before drawing away late for the 1:52.4 win. The four year old son of Dream Away has really come into his own this season, winning five times to go with three second place finishes in just eleven starts in the 2010 campaign. Kelly's Noah moved his seasonal earnings to over $90,000 in his third year on the track. Tuffofthetoughest fought gamely to hold onto second while Outa My Head (Kim Crawford) ran third.

Live racing resumes on Tuesday night at Saratoga with a first post time set for 7:20pm.

Photo: Dave Oxford