

2 BILLINGS SPLITS ON TAP AT DARKE COUNTY FAIR IN GREENVILLE, OHIO AUG. 21

Harness Racings greatest traveling sideshow, the C.K. G. Billings Amateur Driving Series is on the move again. On August 21, at the Darke County Fair in Greenville Ohio, two divisions will be part of the nine race card that day and many of the top drivers in the Billings Midwest Region will be in action, including the current point-leader Steve "You're Never Too" Oldford.

Oldford, who has been atop the Midwest leaderboard from the get-go, has a commanding lead on runner-up Bob "Lumberman" Troyer, who by the way, will not be in action that afternoon.

However, joining Oldford on the racetrack will be "Trader Bud" Hatfield; Dale "the Big Boss" Zahn; "Buckboard Bob" Miller; Tiny Tim" Miller, and Lawbook Larry" Farley, all of whom are among the top ten in points in that region.

And what might help make the competition there even more interesting is that the husband-wife driving duo of Bob Miller and Patricia "the Write Stuff" Miller and the father- daughter tandem of "Chicago George " Bonomo and Michelle the Belle" Ruvola will also be in action, though the family members will be participating in separate races.

Back in action too, is last seasons Billings Point Champion, "Tar Heel Tom" Williams.

Rounding out the field of Billings' competitors at the Darke County Fair on Thursday are: "Jolly Roger" Bartley; Dean "What Am I Bid" Beachy; Bob "I Wanna Sell You A Car" Chapman; Dave "Linemaster" Ehrenberg and Gavin "I'm on the Job" Bixler.
